THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Peace comes when we know that there is something that the Spirit has to teach us in everything we do, in everything we experience. When we are rejected, we learn that there is a love above all loves in life. When we are afraid, we come to know that there are those who will take care of us whatever the cost to themselves... What we come to see is that God's world is good in all its dimensions.

NOTICEBOARD

THIS WEEKEND

Winter Craft Fair, Friday 8 and Saturday 9 November. A mixture of returning favourites and new stallholders are all lined up for this year's Winter Craft Fair. This is one of the region's most loved events and is the perfect place to pick up a gift for a loved one whilst helping support independent businesses. Expect jewellery, ceramics, glassware, textiles, hand-crafted cards and much, much more.

Remembrance Sunday. As usual on Remembrance Sunday, our Cathedral Eucharist this Sunday (10 November) will be at 9.30am in the Quire. The Act of Remembrance will take place from 10.40am (please note slightly earlier time than previously advertised) at the Burgage, and all will then be invited to join the procession to the Minster for a service of remembrance and thanksgiving, for which we will be joined by members of our local uniformed organisations, and of the wider community. Please feel free to go straight to the Minster and wait for the procession to arrive if you prefer. Please note that, due to it being Remembrance Sunday, there will be no 11.15am Sung Eucharist this month.

Music in the State Chamber, Sunday 10 November, 7.30pm. Our next concert will be performed by current member of the Cathedral Choir, tenor Matthew Spillett, accompanied by Paul Provost. Before Southwell, Matthew held singing posts at Peterborough Cathedral, St Chad's Cathedral Birmingham, the Birmingham Oratory and Guildford Cathedral. They will present a programme of German and English song, including Beethoven's An die ferne Geliebte, Ian Venables's Love's Voice and Shiela McQuattie's From the Percy Reliques. Free admission, with a retiring collection for Southwell Minster Choir Association.

THE MINSTER COMMUNITY

Thank you to everyone who made last Sunday so special. Anne and myself felt very loved and blessed as we said goodbye. Thank you for the olive tree, not quite big enough for me to sit under like the elders in scripture but it was certainly big enough to hide me when it was presented. The financial gift will be used to add to our garden. Once again THANK YOU from both of us! Anne and Paul Rattigan

Drop-in for Coffee at The Residence, Saturday 30 November, 10.30am–12 noon. Thank you for all the many kind cards, good wishes, prayers and overwhelming generosity. We will be delighted to see you for coffee before we move. Do drop in ... and take away a book or two from the study! Nicola and Terry

Volunteer Chaperones wanted. We would like to develop a rota of volunteer chaperones to assist our Chorister Supervisor in looking after the cathedral choristers during rehearsals and services as well as some social time. This is a very rewarding role, and a way of getting to see 'behind the scenes' of our Cathedral Choir's excellent work and to get to know the people involved. There are varying times to suit all, and a light minimum obligation. Subject to DBS checks and training, all provided through the Minster. Contact paul.provost@southwellminster.org.uk or speak to a member of music staff for more information.

Would you like to volunteer at any of the Minster events? There's a huge programme of exciting events coming up in 2024 and we're looking for help to ensure their success. This will involve welcoming people and checking tickets to get people in on time. After that, you're welcome to stay and enjoy the performance for free. If you'd like to know more, please email events@southwellminster.org.uk. For a list of events, please see www.southwellminster.org/2024-events/.
